School Life

People can learn new things all over their lives, but students must go to school up to the age of 15. Students cannot stop school before this age. They don't have to go school after 15, too. This happens in Greece today. When students finish Junior High School, which usually happens at the age of 15:

- They can stop school.
- They can go to a Senior High School.
- They can go to a Vocational High School (EPAL).

Sometimes students at Senior High School can change school and go to EPAL. Almost every town has a Senior High School. In EPAL students learn interesting things about technical jobs. Only cities and big towns have an EPAL. Also, not every EPAL has teachers for all technical jobs. Students may have to go to an EPAL far from their houses if they want to learn about the job they like.
