Vincent van Gogh

Vincent van Gogh was born in Holland. He was the son of a priest. His sister said that he was a serious and quiet child. In spring 1886 Vincent went to Paris. There he met famous painters, like Edgar Degas, Paul Gauguin, etc. Van Gogh was a nervous person, too. He went to Arles to create a school of art. Gauguin went with him but, after a serious fight, Van Gogh cut off a piece of his own ear. Van Gogh was sent to an asylum because he was ill and very sad. There he painted some 150 paintings. The only painting he sold was "The Red Vineyard". Finally, Van Gogh shot himself. He died two days later. Theo, his brother got very sad and died 6 months later. Vincent's brother's wife collected Vincent's paintings and letters after his death. His portrait of "Doctor Gachet" was sold for $82.5 million.
