Read the text and decide if each statement (1-10) is True (A) or False (B).

Muzon is a strong supporter of girls and young women's right to education in Jordan's refugee's camps. She reminds us of Malala's fight in Pakistan. Muzon's family escaped the war in Syria in 2013. At first her parents thought of leaving her behind. Muzon, 14 years old, was a very good student. She had been studying hard all year for her end-of-school exams. Her aunt told the family to let her stay and continue her education. However, her father decided that the risks were too great.

So the girl left the country with her family to Jordan's Azraq refugee camp. Education has always been important in Muzon's life. Both of her parents were teachers in Syria and her aunt and uncle were head teachers at local schools. "Our house was built by an engineer. When I was sick I went to a doctor. Education is everything in life." Muzon said.
